STAR PRAYERS

THE STAR

PAGE 2

by Beatrice Redpath ( - 1937)

I think God sang when He had made
A bough of apple bloom,
And placed it close against the sky
To whiten in the gloom.

But, oh, when He had hung a star
Above a blue, blue hill,
I think God in His ecstasy
Was startled . . . and was still.

A CHILD'S PRAYER AT EVENING

PAGE 9

by Charles G.D. Roberts (1860-1943)

(Domine, cui sunt Pleiades curae)

Father, who keepest
The stars in Thy care,
Me, too, Thy little one,
Childish in prayer,
Keep, as Thou keepest
The soft night through,
Thy long, white lilies
Asleep in Thy dew.

STAR LIGHT, STAR BRIGHT

Anonymous Verse

Star light, Star bright,
First star I see tonight,
I wish I may, I wish I might
Have the wish I wish tonight.

In writing Star Prayers, I was fascinated by the attraction of the night sky and stars to people throughout the ages. I chose these three beautiful poems because they embodied a strong sense of wonder, hope and innocence. For performance, I imagined the night sky as a canopy enveloping all of the prayers, wishes and musings of an eternity of faces lifted towards the heavens.
